About Today's Service

The Season after Epiphany is one of the two "green seasons" of "Ordinary Time" in the church year, which are distinguished from the seasons of Christmas and Easter and their preparatory seasons, Advent and Lent, respectively. This season is a time of growing in knowledge and maturing in faith.

Holy Communion will be celebrated today. All who are baptized into Christ and believe that he is really present in, with, and under the bread and wine for the forgiveness of their sins are welcome to join us at the altar.

To those with young children: We are very happy you are here today. Relax and enjoy your time here. Jesus knows that children tend to wiggle and squawk a bit, so please don't be embarrassed by it!

Encourage your kids to sing and pray with us, and be sure to sing and pray your parts as an example to them.

A children's sermon will be given for any kids who want to come forward.

There are also activity bags for kids on the wooden tree just outside the Centrum doors.
