About this Service

Today we keep our annual Community Thanksgiving service. Whether you worship here every week or this is your first time in this building, you are welcome. We gather to give thanks for the ways God has blessed us, and our offering today goes to the Jackson Food Shelf.

We stand, if able, to pray and to sing, and we sit to listen. The screen carries everything you need. Hymnals are in the racks if you would like the music in your hands.

Children are welcome in worship, and they are welcome to make a little noise. Encourage your children to sing and pray with you.
